

AQHA European Judges Seminar General Information

The American Quarter Horse Association will conduct an AQHA European Judges Seminar on April 7 to April 11, 2010 in Germany. The first day (April 7) is a separate seminar for existing judges only. The next two days (April 8–9) are for applicants with existing judges welcome and the weekend (April 10–11) is for judge applicants only. The seminar will be arranged at Seehotel Niedernberg, 63843 Niedernberg, 80 km east of Frankfurt/Main. The test (life judging) following the Judges Seminar will be held at JOMM-Ranches, 63868 Grosswallstadt. JOMM Ranches are about 2 km from the hotel (by car: 5 minutes ride).

Fees AQHA Judges Seminar for Existing European Judges

One day (04/07/2010): 100 Euro

Three days (04/07/2010–04/09/2010): 200 Euro

Fees AQHA Judges Seminar for European Judge Applicants

Two days (04/08/2010–04/09/2010): 150 Euro

Four days (04/08/2010–04/11/2010): 250 Euro

The fees include:

- ◆ documentation
- ◆ lunch and coffee break (April 7 – 9, April 11)

Personal hotel accommodation costs (room, mini-bar etc.) are not included in the seminar fees.

Single Room Seehotel: € 115,00 (incl. breakfast)

Double Room Seehotel: € 164,00 (incl. breakfast)

The AQHA European Judges Seminar (for judge applicants) will be held on April 8 & 9 followed by the test on April 10 & 11. The AQHA European Judges Seminar can be attended without taking the test. The seminar on April 7 is provided as judges training for existing European Judges only.

The seminar is held in English language by AQHA judge trainers. Applicants should be familiar with the AQHA rulebook and must have a valid individual AQHA membership.

Premises:

- ◆ all applicants have to submit the AQHA European Judges Application Forms by February 26, 2010.
- ◆ applicants have to submit a reference from the President of the International Quarter Horse Association of the country in which they reside
- ◆ the minimum age for applicants is 25 years
- ◆ applicants must have a current AQHA membership

Please send your application to: DQHA Office
Daimlerstr. 22
D-63741 Aschaffenburg
☎ 06021 – 58459-12
✉ ruetzel@dqha.de